LITTLE MISS & MISTER MAPLE LEAF

RULES & REGULATIONS

1. Child must live in the Carthage / Avilla School District. Children should be 2 years old ON OR BEFORE OCT. 1, 2010.
2. Costume consists of jeans & t-shirt only! Jeans only, color does not matter T-shirt must be white but can be long/short sleeve & may be decorated in any way.
For example,
t-shirts may have a Maple Leaf drawing, bows, lace, etc.
Tennis shoes, boots, any footwear is acceptable
Any hair style is acceptable
Accessories such as hats, jewelry, etc. are optional
3. Judging will be done with 50 points possible for presentation & appearance. Presentation & appearance will be scored during the modeling portion of the event. The modeling will be done ramp style down to the judges with turns & pivots allowed before judges, then back to the starting point. Big smiles are encouraged! It's alright for Mom or Dad to hold a hand since we want this to be a good experience for everyone & want them to feel good about themselves.

Judging / Presentation & appearance – 50 points

Presentation: 25 points

Carriage: Head, Chin, etc.

Walking: Pace, Length of step, flow, etc.

Appearance: 25 points

Appropriate to age, figure, coloring

Attire: Fitness / Neatness Accessories,

Hair, Grooming

As you can see, these are very basic judging captions and should be very easy for the general public to follow. Hopefully by allowing the parents to see what is being judged, no one will over-do their children and will feel this was a fun & beneficial experience for their children.

A $15.00 entry fee will be charged to cover the cost of the building, awards, and administrative expenses. Awards will be given for the top three in each age division with the option to give more awards should entries warrant.

For more information contact: Event Chairman Jeanine at 674-0044 or the Carthage Chamber of Commerce at 358-2373.
